The Master's Words

Brethren, Greetings from the East!

The lodge is ready to go to work. The summer is over and we have work to do.

We have a Master Mason degree scheduled Sept. 8th. There is lots of Business on Aug. 18; balloting, bills, and more.

I would like to thank all the men that have helped inside and outside repairs of our lodge this summer, you are greatly appreciated for all your hard work. A special thank you to all that do chores every week and sometimes no one knows who or how but the work is done.

Sept 10th 12:00 is the start of our first Harvest Fest. This will be like a Picnic. All are welcome to join us.

The lodge will have a work day on Sept 24th. We will have a chainsaw, trailer, and other tools.

Our Job's Daughters Bethel 77 will have the first Installation at Unity Lodge on Sept 27th at 1:00pm. Let's support our Bethel. All that can please attend.

I hope all of you have had a good summer.

Sincerely,

Royce Ingraham

Worshipful Master

From the Junior Warden:

Starting on 26 May 2011, we will be hosting a Back to the Basics study group. On the off Thursday nights (non-meeting nights), we will be using the Lodge as a study hall for those of you wish to hone your ritual skills. We will start at 5:30 PM.

This is not a coffee klatsch or social event, but geared to those who wish to learn. Bring your Blue Books and we will learn together.

Bro. Babe got this in the mail...

"We are all very happy that Bethel #77 will be having their first installation on Saturday, August 27, after moving back to their original home. Wish we could be there. Our thoughts and prayers will be there for this special occasion. Jobie Love, Mom & Dad McClelland, Past Guardians of the Bethel"

SEPTEMBER

From the Secretary's Desk

Thanks to brother Bill Shelley who had our charter put in a beautiful new frame and hung it in the same place where the old frame was hanging. Thanks also to the brothers who replaced the pole on the west side of the lodge, also fixed the fence and poles near the dumpster, put mortar around the rear of the lodge building, cleaned the kitchen and lunch area, making the coffee and getting the rolls, cleaning the windows and cutting the grass on the west side of the bldg. and who cut the big field, also who gets our trestle board out every month. Thanks to the brothers that visit the sick or have other problems. A lot of time and labor goes into these things. If we had to pay for all this, it would cost the lodge a pretty penny.

As you all know, last year, I sent out notices to pay our lodge dues (perpetual members do not get a notice). Well, I still have about 20 cards on file. Don't you remember???? I will answer and obey all signs sent to me... Unity Lodge has already paid $740.00 for you members to Grand Lodge. We only pay $24 a year for our dues and $37 goes to Grand Lodge. Have you got your 2011 card??? Remember that old saying...if the shoe fits, wear it.

Remember every Wednesday morning coffee, rolls and you never know what else...
Your Secretary, Harold (Babe) Kreuser

The Editor

I had to replace my computer the other day. Most of my "stuff" is working, but it will take a while to work out all the kinks. It's the technology I love to hate...even after 35 years in the computer "business".

Save the date: September 10 will be the Unity Lodge Harvest Fest Picnic.

I'll see you in Lodge!

Fraternally,

The system of morality referred to as Freemasonry is that which every Mason is bound to profess and practice. If it includes principles with which you were more or less familiar before your entrance into Masonry, you will nevertheless find these presented in new ways and under forms different from those with which you were previously familiar. If you find in Masonic teachings nothing startlingly new, you must remember that, in some respects at least, there is "nothing new under the sun." The essence of morality is to be found in the utter simplicity (though not the ease) of its requirements.
