The Master's Words

Greetings from the East,

Finally summer is here! I hope everyone is enjoying the beautiful weather!

Well I want to say thank you to Bro. Wayne Budwick for all the help organizing the trip to the Kingfish game. We had a good turnout and look forward to another game! I had the honor and privilege of presenting my Grandfather (Gordie) his 50 year certificate and pin. It was something that really made my year as Master special. Thanks to Washburn Lodge for visiting and help celebrate. It really means a lot to have so much support from our visiting Brothers!

A reminder the first meeting in August (August 6th) we will have a dinner before at 5:30pm so come join us. It will be nice to see some new faces around!

We enjoyed some pizza and beverages thanks to Bro. Bill Shelley for organizing a good time with great fellowship, on short notice!! I think we should do it more often!

We are working on a date in September for our picnic. I will keep everyone posted as we finalize the details.

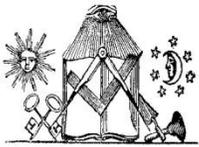

See you in Lodge!

Fraternally,

Bro. Jerry Slater W.M.,

The Editor/Secretary

It's high summer (I can tell from the bills for lawn mower gas that I get from Bro. Milt and Bro. Ben...thanks for keeping our grounds looking good!)

Thanks to Bro. Bill for putting together the impromptu pizza party on July 16 and for all who came out to enjoy it. That's what the Fellowship of our fraternity is supposed to be all about!

WM Jerry is putting together a dinner before our Stated meeting on August 6. It should be a good time. We'll have the air conditioning on, so come to Lodge to see what Jerry cooks up for us.

It's been 8 weeks, so another Blood Drive will be at Unity on August 22. Come out and help save some lives with your donation.

I'll see you in Lodge!
