The Master's Words

Greetings to All,

We hope this finds you well. It goes without saying, weather has had its moments. I have been told, boat and generator sales had a spike in the last couple days.

Recently, we have lost several members. I am reminded that Masonry is more than four walls, bank accounts, fundraisers and titles. Masonry is its MEMBERS: members that should be actively engaged with each other and their communities. I ask that each of us, each week reach out to a member of the lodge, a neighbor or a member of the community, either by a visit or phone call to let them know you are there and that you care.

I send a special prayer to the family of WBro. Oral Congdon. May the GAOTU watch over them and grant them comfort and peace. Peace be with you and your family, Bro. Bill

Dates to Remember August 2017

The Editor/Secretary

Summer is in high gear. If it's not 90 degrees and humid, it's raining like a faucet!

The Lodge is pretty quiet lately. We will return to our twice-monthly meetings in September.

Thirteen Brothers are still in arrears for 2017 dues. Pay up!

I'll see you in Lodge!

Fraternally,
Bob Burgermeister, HPM
Editor, Web Manager and Secretary/Treasurer
